

Winter Ice

ALTO FLUTE SOLO WITH PIANO

3 MINUTES

SAMANTHA HOGAN

Program Notes:

"Winter Ice, so cold, it bites and saps your strength with all its might. So beautiful, it freezes your stare, while the arctic winds blow through the air."

Once I heard the story of The Little Match Stick Girl, this was the music that began playing in my head as I imagined the poor girl walking through the wind and snow on a dark winters night.

For those interested, there is an alternate version written for Alto Flute and 1 Vibraphone with 2 players.*
